Projects

- Disney+ Hotstar Clone
  Developed a Disney+ Hotstar clone as a personal project, demonstrating proficiency in web and user interface design. Created a responsive and user-friendly platform that emulates the features and showcasing my skills in front-end design.

- Question Bank
  A question bank website that offers handwritten notes and previous year question papers for universities and various educational boards is an invaluable resource for students pursuing higher education and those preparing for standardized exams.
